Reference: Incident at 6205 Roles Saddle Drive on 12/11/15

The Town of Rolesville Police Department continues to investigate the incident that occurred at 6205 Roles Saddle Drive on December 11, 2015. The Town continues to keep the family and loved ones, affected by this tragic event, in our thoughts and prayers. We encourage the public to do the same.

As an update from the statement made on Friday, December 11, the identities of the deceased adult and child will not be made available until such time that proper identification is made through the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner. The Town asks for the public's patience as this process continues. The Town can confirm that the child, taken to UNC Hospital, is listed in critical but stable condition. The Rolesville Police Department will only release facts related to the case and cannot confirm what is posted on social media.

Chief Langston stated that "the Rolesville Police Department wishes to assure the community that this incident is being investigated as an isolated event. There are no known threats to the public related to this incident and the Rolesville community continues to be one of the safest in Wake County and the State of North Carolina. All should respect the privacy of the family involved and request patience as the Rolesville Police Department works day and night to come to a conclusion of the facts. All future correspondence and information will be made through similar press releases."
