Reference: Rolesville High School social media rumor of threat

Late evening on April 6, the Rolesville Police Department were notified by the Wake County Public School System (WCPSS) Security and Rolesville High School staff about a rumor that began to spread on social media about a threat to the school.

The Rolesville Police Department worked closely with the WCPSS to ensure all Rolesville residents and school students were safe. Our investigation determined that the rumored statement is unsubstantiated and that there is no known credible threat to Rolesville High School. No charges will be filed as a result of this.

We wish to thank Sheriff Harrison and the Wake County Sheriff's Office along with WCPSS security for providing additional resources.

Mayor Frank Eagles and Police Chief Langston ask all parents to remind your children to not share rumors and perpetuate fear on social media.

If you should have any concerns or ever see anything suspicious, do not hesitate to contact 911 immediately.
